Australian Information Industry Association

AIIA Board & Council Elections

Who can nominate?

You may nominate if you:

- Are a senior representative of an AIIA paid member;
- Represent your organisation's interests in the region; and
- Have your organisation's authorisation to stand for election.

Note: A member organisation may only have one representative serving on the Board and the Council at any one time.

Board & Council Composition

The Board & Council may comprise:

- Up to 11 elected members
- Up to 5 appointed members (appointed members serve a one-year term)
- The immediate past Chair

The AIIA Board & Council seeks a diverse mix of skills, experience, backgrounds, genders, member types and organisational representation.

Terms of Office

- Elected Members serve a 3-year term.
- Members may stand for re-election.
- Elected members may serve up to two consecutive terms.

Election Process

- Elections are conducted prior to the AGM for positions becoming vacant.
- AIIA will issue a Call for Nominations at least 14 days before the AGM.
- Nominees must submit:

- Director of the Board Nomination Form or State and Territory Council Nomination Form
- Biography of no more than 200 words

If the number of eligible candidates does not exceed the number of vacancies, the returning officer will declare those candidates elected without conducting a ballot.

If nominations exceed available positions, an electronic ballot will be conducted among eligible member representatives.

Voting

- Each eligible AIIA member has one vote.
- Members must nominate a Voting Representative.
- Successful candidates are elected based on the highest number of votes received.

Why Join the Board?

Board Members play a key role in:

- Shaping AIIA priorities and initiatives on the national level
- Providing leadership and industry expertise

Why Join the Council?

Council Members play a key role in:

- Representing members' interests on the state level
- Supporting the growth and impact of Australia's digital and technology sector

Interested in Nominating?

Watch for the official Call for Nominations from AIIA in October, which will include nomination instructions, key dates and vacancy details.